By act of Congress approved April 21, 1838, no member of Congress can be a contractor, or be concerned, directly or indirectly, in any contract member of Congress can be a contractor, or be concerned, directly or indirectly, in any contract with the Government; and by the same act it is made a high misdeneanor for any officer of the United States to enter, in its behalf, into a con-tract with a member of Congress. (But if a member withdraw from a contract it may be concluded with the other partners.—Opin-ion of differety General, 4.5. A contract with one who is elected a member of Congress during its continuance is not affected by such election.—

The Postmaster General has no power, under The Postmaster General has no power, under the law, to release binders and contractors and their sureties from their liabilities on the allega-tion of real or apposed mistakes of any kind in making proposals. He particularly requests that, before bidding, the fullest inquiry and in-vestigation be made in regard to the route, dis-tance, service, weight of mails, cost of stock, feed, and all expenses existing and likely to occur during the contract term, and with due consideration of the consequences imposed by law on delinquents.

CONTRACTS TO BE EXECUTED AND FILED IN THE DETARTMENT BY THE FIRST DAY OF JUNE.

Under the provisions of section 245 of the act approved June 23, 1874, the Postmaster General has prescribed the 1st day of June, 1876, on or before which day the contracts of accepted bidders must be received at the Department in Washington, executed in due form.

Accepted bidders not complying with this regulation shall be considered as having failed to comply with their proposals, and the Postm ster General may proceed to contract for the service with other parties, according to law.

6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of peermasters or the affidiatils of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time: for neglecting to take the mail from or deliver it into, a post office: for suffering it to be wet, injured, destroyed, roubed or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running, a coach, car, or steamboat on a route.

7. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract; for violating the post office laws, or disobeying the instructions of the Department; for refusing to discharge a carrier when required by the Department to do so; for running an express refusing to discharge a carrier whee required by the Department to do so; for running an express as aforesaid; or for transporting persons or packages conveying mailable matter out of the mail.
8. The Portmaster General may order an increase of service on a route by allowing therefor a per refs increase on the contract pay. He may chonge schedules of departures and arrivals in all cases, and particularly to make them conform to connections with railroads, without increase of pay, provided the running time be not abridged.
The Pestmaster General may also discontinue or curtail the service, in whole or in part, in order to place on the route superior service, or whenever the public interests, in his judgment, shall require such discontinuance or curtailment for any other cause; he allowing, as full indemnity to contractor, one month's extra pay on the amount of service dispensed with, and a pro vata compensation for the amount of service retained and continued.

9. Payments will be made by collections from, or draits on, postmasters or otherwise, after the expiration of each quarter—say in November, February, May and August, provided that required evidence of service has been received.

10. The distances given are believed to be substantially correct; but no increased pay will be allowed should they be greater than advertised, if the points to be supplied are correctly stated. Bidders must inform the weight of the mail, the condition of bills, roads, streams, &c., and all toll-bridges, turnylikes, plank roads, ferries or obstructions of any kind by which expense may be incurred. No claim for additional pay, based on such ground, can be considered nor for alleged mistakes or misspirebension as to the degree of service; nor for bridges destroyed, ferries discontinued, or other obstructions causing or increasing distance or expense occurring during the contract term. Offices established after this advertisement is issued, and also during the contract term. Offices established after this advertisement is issued, and also during the contract term, are to be visited without extra pay if the distance be not increased.

11. Bidders are cautioused to mail their proposals in time to reach the Department by the day and hour named in the advertisement, as bids received after that time will not be considered in competition with bids of reasonable amount received in time. Neither can bids be considered which are without the bond, oath and certificate required by section 245, act of June 22, 1574.

12. Bidders should be but one route bid for in a proposal. Consolidated or combination bids ("proposing one sum for two or more routes") proposal. Consolidated or combination bids ("proposing one sum

20. All checks deposited with bids will be held until contract is executed and service commenced by the accepted bidder. Checks will then be returned by mail on the written request of the bidder.

21. Transfers of contracts, or of interest in contracts, are furbidien by law, and consequently cannot be allowed. Neither can bies, or interest in bids, be transferred or assigned to other parties. Bidders will therefore take motion that they will be expected to perform the service awarded to them through the whole contract term.

they will be expected to perform the service awarded to them through the whole contract term.

22. Section 249 of the set of June 8, 1872, provides that sontracts for the transportation of the mail shall be "awarded to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guarantees for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation them may be necessary to provide for the ducedentity, certainty and security thereof." Under this law bids that propose to transport the mails with "celerity, certainty and security," howing been decided to be the only legal bids, are construed as providing for the emire mail, however large, and whatever may be the mode of conveyance necessary to insure its "celerity, certainty and security," and have the preference over all others, and no others are considered, except for stemmboat routes.

23. A medification of a bid in any of its essential terms is tantamount to a new bid, and cannot be received so as to interfere with regular competition. Making a new bid in proper form is the only way to modify a previous one.

24. Postmasters are cautioned not to sign the approval of the bond of any bidder before the bond is signed by the bidder and his sureties, and not until entirely satisfied of the sufficiency of the sureties. See sections 246 and 247, act of June 23, 1574, accompanying this advertisement.

25. Postmasters are also liable to dismissal from office for acting as agents of contractors or bidders, with or without compensation, in any business matter or thing relating to the mail service. They are the trusted agents of the Department, and cannot consistently act in both capacities.

26. In all cases where the routes are not fully supplied with the necessary looks and pouches, it is the duty of the postmaster at the head of the route to make requisition on the Contract Office of this Department for such looks and pouches. route to make requisition on the Contract Office of this Department for such looks and posches before 1st July mext, provided the routs be let. which had attempted to decree this went down the experiment would perish with it. This was the plot if the Democratic party wer got into power, and this was what it would do, it would deprive the negro of all his political rights. M. MERRIMAN offered THE POLLOWING AMENDMENT

THE FOLLOWISH AMENDMENT:

"and particularly whether the persons whom he has recognized as the official authorities of said State of Louisinan were elected according to the constitution and laws of that State, and if so, how and by what means he ascertained such face, and whether other persons than those recognized by him as such authorities claimed and siam to be the lawful authorities of said State, and upon what grounds the last-mentioned persons claimed to be said fawful authorities, with all the evidence furnished the generative department by said persons to matain such claim; and all communications between the executive department and said persons in reference to said claims, and what and all information he had and has to that effect."

Mr.GOEDON said that is the Troup county affair, refurred to by the Sensior, the megroes in a body had marched on the day of election to the county town and demanded a larger share in the number of managers of the election. Without waiting for a reply, shey want aff to a meighboring hill and raised funds to sand a messenger to the Chattamong accuration, the whole thing having heer-preparanged. The Sensior from Indiana [Mr. Mouron] says in 1858 she Republicans carried Geomia by nearly ten thousand, and it must be intiredation which has wiped out that mejority. He/Mr.G. have something of that election.

HE WAS A CANDIDATE FOR GOTHEROR

HE WAS D CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR, and after that election or Republican said he words show that Mr. Gournow was elected Governor by several thousand majority; he was not made the manager of the State road. He was not only make manager of the State road, but he was elected United States Senator and he did not carry out his throat.

Mr. MORTON. Who was he?

Mr. MORTON. Who was he?

Mr. MORDON. Floster Blodgett. Mr. Gr then said that after that election was over General Meade, on the affidavits of parties that they were deprived of their voice, had the bailet-boses opened and the result shanged to conform to the silidavits. There was no trouble about carrying an election in that way. Every register of voicers in that election under appointed from Washington and in syrspathy with the Administration. No trouble about carrying elections under such elections to work each election to won carriage driver had told him voluntarily that he would vote the Democratic ticket, but was afraid to do so. He asked Mr. Mostrow whether if the Democratis had carried Greenia by intimidiation, had they also in the dation.

After some further discussion Mr. MERRIMON withdrew his amendment, and said he hoped the President would send in information on both

Mr. DAWES, of Mass., as a privileged question, presented a certificate, signed by Drs. W. P. Johnson and A. Y. P. trarnett, setting forth that R. B. Irwin's physical and mental condition was such that his confluement in jail might be attended with the most serious consequences. ed with the most serious consequences.

Mr. DA WES moved to refer the certificate to the Ways and Means Committee. The professional and sectal standing of the physicians signing, the certificate entitled it to consideration, and he would therefore move, in addition, that pending the consideration of the subject by the committee that the Sergeant at Arms be directed to hold irwin in his personal custody.

Several members objected to the latter motion, and it was withdrawn. Several members objected to the latter monule, and it was withdrawn.

The motion to refer was agreed to, when Mr. BUTLER, of Mass, renewed the motion in relation to the custody of the prisoner penuing the investigation.

The motion was rejected by a yea and nay vote

MAILS BURWED.

The SPEAKER had read a telegram from the Post Office Department stating that all the mails for the North that had accumulated in this city yest-rday were burned last night by the accident on the Baltimore and Potomae railroad. The mails for the West. Northwest and Senthwest went by the Baltimore and Ghio-road, and are not included in the destruction.

PRIVATE BILLS. The regular order was demanded, and commit-tees were called for reports of a private charac-ter. The Committee on Claims and on War Claims reported a number of bills, which were referred to the private calender. Among the bills reported adversely was one for the relief of John H. Sotheron, of St. Mary's county, Md.

REGULARS AND VOLUNTEERS. Mr. YOUNG, of Ga., from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill to premote Gen. Hufus Saxton to a place on the Army Register next after Gen. Stewart Van Vilet. Meesra BUTLER of Mass, and SCHOFIELD, of Pa., opposed the bill on the ground that the effect would be to put Gen. Saxton above Col. Ekin. Ekin. Mr. BUTLER characterized this as a renewal

Mr. BUTLER characterized this as a renewal of the old figst between the regular officers and the volunteers, and he charged that the regulars were hanging around Washington and pocking at Congress while the officers who were appointed from the volunteers were in active service on the plains.

Mr. McDeUGALL, of N. Y., defended the officers of the regular army from the charge made by Gen. Butler, and said the commandors who meet distinguished themselves in the late war, on both sides, were graduates of West Point. The gentleman from Massachusetts was a distinguished volunteer officer: why didn't he do something while in command of an army?

Mr. BUTLER replied that regular army officers would not permit him to de anything.

Mr. McDOUGALL isquired how they could prevent this. Mr. MacDOUGALL isquired how they could prevent this.

Mr. BUTLER replied that regular officers would not obey his orders. After the war the volunteers went home and did not fear starvation if they lost their places in the army.

Mr. GARFIELD expressed surprise that Mr. BUTLER should make the loud assertion that regular officers refused to obey his orders.

Mr. BUTLER said he had reference only to two corps commanders who were regulars and who always thwarted him.

The bill developed much opposition, but was finally passed.

ORIEVANCE OF MR. RANDALL.

ORIEVANCE OF MR. RANDALL. ORIEVANCE OF MR. RANDALL.

Mr. RANDALL, of Pa., said that on yesterday there was an issue of fact in relation to the action of the Banking and Currency Committee on the Sonate currousy bill. By a vote of the committee he was now sutherized to state what the action of the committee was. On motion of Mr. J. R. HAWLEY, a member of the committee, the chairman [Mr. MAYMARD] was directed to permit two amendments to be offered: one, to strike out the first and second sections, and the other to inthe word "cancel" in the bird section.

Mr. MAYMARD, of Tean, said the bill was not before the committee word rethe core. Mr. MAYNARD, of Tean, said the bill was not before the committee except informally. If it had been he would have been compelled to obey the direction of the committee. But the gentlemen were all awars of the difficulty that sometimes arises in getting measures through the Huse. He held it to be the duty of any one having charge of a bill to bring the majority of the House to a direct consideration of the matter pending. He feared amendments would defeat the bill, and he had therefore taken the responsibility of submitting it directly to the House.

A FAIR HERGITION FOR LOUISIANAL.

Mr. BUTLLER, of Mass. introduced, a bill to

A FAIR ELECTION FOR LOUISIANA.

Nr. BUTLLER, of Mass. introduced a hill to provide for a legal and fair election in Louisiana, and to guarantes a republican form, of government. Iddiciary.

Mr. GARFISLD, of Uhio, from the Gommittee on Appropriations, reported a bill providing that the officers engaged in the transit of Wegus shall be paid out of the appropriations forche departments to which they were attached. Passed.

PRIVATE CALENDAR.

The Housa then resolved itself into Committee of the Whole on the Private Calendan, Mr. G. F. Hoan in the chair.

The first bill on the calendar was the bill for the relief of the option of the united States of the celles woming and the limited States States woming and the limited States States woming and the limited in March lest by Mr. Myrnd, of Pa., and proposed to give these officers and crews compensation for the destruction of certain. Ispanese piralical vassels. None seemed to doubt that the money should be past, but the bill proposed that the payment should be made, out of the Japanese indemnity fund. This was apposed on the ground that this find should be properly returned to Japan. The question of the passage of the bill hinged upon this point. Bending action the committee rote.

Mr. BOUGHTON, at Cal., introduced a bill to spable the Southern Facility salivous to change its pable the Southern Pacific railroad to change its ine and to construct an additional track. Rearred.
